Awards made

A special 4-H Awards Program was held at Appomattox Elementary School last week to recognize outstanding 4-H officers and groups. The 4-H officers recognized received individual awards and the winning classes received a framed certificate and blue ribbon for each class member.

The most outstanding 4-H classes for 1980-81 were: 4th grade - Mrs. Berryman; 5th grade - Mrs. Humphries; and 6th grade - Mrs. Eye. These awards were based on performance of officers, conduct during 4-H meetings and participation in special programs and activities during the 4-H year.

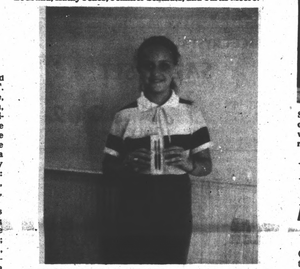
Also recognized for their achievements during the year were Mrs. Gregory's 4th grade class and Mrs. Davis' 5th grade class.

Those 4-H officers recognized for their work during the year included: 4th grade presidents: Keshia Haskins, Bandall Ferguson and Cindy Page; vice presidents: Sharla Kvasnicka, Sharon Webb, Brent Harrison; secretaries: Sheri Williams, Julie Youngblood, Beth Carter; Recreation Leaders: Susan Watkins, Celeste Bartelt and Michael Mann.

5th grade officers recognized were: presidents: Jeff Agee, T. M. Phelps, Zane Torrence, Karen Lewis, Rhonda Ranson, Shelly Garrison; vice presidents: Scott Dawson, Valerie Guill, Karen Gilliam, Christie Doss, Micki Wells, Angie Jamerson. Secretaries: Regina Christian, Kim Fuller, Kathy Beasley; Recreation Leaders: Beth Marston, Kathy White, Lorie Christian, Lucille Lewis, Keith Fanney.

6th grade officers selected as outstanding were; presidents: Robert Chenault, Annette Turner, Dana Lee, Troy Totty; vice presidents: William Curd, Monica Stratton, John Cawthorne, Todd Garrett, Audra Doss; secretaries: Lisa Ferguson, Jennifer Schmuts; recreation leaders: Troy Blankenship, Jennifer Megginson, Jeff Scruggs.

Appreciation was expressed to the more than 120 4-H officers at Appomattox Elementary School for their cooperation and assistance in conducting 4-H programs during the past year. It is hoped that many of these young people have gained valuable experience and responsibility through serving as 4-H officers.



THE OUTSTANDING 4-H OFFICER in Appomattox County from Mr. Seymour's sixth grade class at Pamplin Elementary School is Kelly Webber.

Pamplin kids awarded

On Thursday of last week, 4-H officers from th 4th, 5th and 6th grades at Pamplin Elementary School were presented awards based on their performances during the year. Each class also received a certificate of recognition for their group achievements during the 1980-81 4-H year.

Mrs. Nancy Dickerson's 5th grade 4-H group was awarded the top award as the Most Outstanding Overall 4-H Club at Pamplin Elementary School this year. Certificates were also awarded to Miss Susan Jamerson's 4th grade 4-H group and Mr. Conrad Seymour's 6th grade 4-H Club.

Individual officers recognized for their work were: president: Renee Wesley; vice president: Robin Miller; secretary: Kelly Webber; and Recreation Leaders: Dianne Hamlin, Marie Freeman and Leroy Wooldridge.

A special pen and pencil set was awarded to Kelly Webber, Secretary in Mr. Seymour's 4-H class, as the outstanding 4-H officer in Appomattox County.

Overton in exercise

June 8 (FHTNC) -- Marine PFC. Robert L. Overton, son of Alvin L. and Mary J. Overton of Route 1, Box 97B, Pamplin, Va., recently participated in exercise "Solid Shield 81."

He is a member of the 2nd Battalion, 10th Marines, based at Camp Lejune, N. C.

"Solid Shield 81" was the 19th in a series of annual land and sea exercises designed to emphasize command and control of military forces in a simulated combat enviroment.

Involving more than 27,000 Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps personnel, the exercise was conducted at Camp Lejune, N. C., Fort Bragg, N. C., and Shaw Air Force Base, S. C.

The three-week exercise simulated military action between opposing land, sea, and air forces, and included an airborne assault, naval mine warfare, harbor control, runway repair, and tactical air support operations.

Loan closet down

The Appomattox County Loan Closet is completely depleted, according to Ray Noble, spokesman for the Appomattox County Volunteer Rescue Squad and the County Cancer Society.

Noble says that there are no beds, walkers, wheelchairs, or other medical items for loan in the county loan closet.

He asks that anyone having any Loan Closet items not currently in use return them so that some one needing them may use them.

Mrs. Ricky Allen Butler

Miss Megginson wed to Mr. Butler

The marriage of Miss Josie Megginson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robert Megginson, Sr. of Appomattox to Mr. Ricky Allen Butler, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Braithwaite Butler, Baltimore, Maryland, took place at three o'clock in the afternoon in the Liberty Chapel Baptist Church.

The Rev. James N. Williams, minister of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Bettie M. Leftwich, organist and cousin of the bride and Miss Renee Williams and Mr. Thomas R. Terry, vocalists.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a slipper length gown of white nylon chiffon with Venice lace. Appliques of lace accented with pearls highlighted the Queen Anne neckline, the fitted bodice and the long bishop sleeves. The overskirt was gathered up with appliques and small appliques accented the overskirt which ended in a chapel length train. She wore a hat trimmed with Venice lace appliques, to which was attached her veil of silk illusion. She carried a nosegay of silk roses, gardenias, daisies, and baby's breath. She wore a string of pearls, a gift from her parents.

Mrs. Joseph Robert Megginson, Jr. of Richmond, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Rhonda Victoria Bulter, sister of the bridegroom of Baltimore, Maryland, Miss Sarah Rebecca Lane, Ms. Karen Anne Martin, of Richmond, Mrs. Vicki Smith Mahanes, King William County, and Mrs. Lewis Kirk Harris, Gladstone. Miss Jessica Mae Megginson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Jonathan K. Megginson, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Mr. Butler was best man for his son, ushers were Joseph Robert Megginson, Jr., brother of the bride, Richmond; Lewis Kirk Harris, cousin of the bride, Gladstone; James Alexander Walden, Mechanicsville; Samuel Robert Barkley, Goochland and Matthew Joseph Simons, Hagerstown, Maryland.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at the Falling River Country Club. Miss Ethelina Trent was Mistress of Ceremonies. Miss Rhonda Faye Morgan, cousin of the bride, was at the guest book. Hostesses were Mrs. George C. Franklin, Mrs. A. R. Harwood, Jr., Mrs. George Kreidel, Mrs. Charles R. Morgan, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Bernard W. Torrence, Mrs. Crawford W. Harris, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. James A. Conner and Mrs. Donald W. Thornhill.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C., and did graduate work at VPI&SU, Blacksburg, Va. She is employed as the Fire Education Specialist for the County of Henrico, Division of Fire, Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. Butler a graduate of Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, Baltimore, Md. and The University of Arkansas with a BS degree in Forestry Management, is employed with the Virginia Divison of Forestry in Henrico County.

After a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Highland Springs, Virginia.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN KENT HAMILTON, (right), were honored with a reception celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary, held at their home in Evergreen on Sunday, May 31. Shown with the Hamiltons are (left) Dr. and Mrs. Carl Collins. Dr. Collins was the officiating minister at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton on May 28, 1941 in Evergreen. Hosts for the occasion were the sons of the Hamiltons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Hamilton of Newport News, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Hamilton of Evergreen. Approximately 100 friends and relatives were present for the occasion.

Couple honored

Entertaining has begun in connection with the marriage of Miss Ann Gardner Tsoleas and Robin Wallace Moore, which will take place July 4, 7:30 p.m. in Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church in Appomattox.

Mrs. Thomas E. Stratton and Traci Harris Moore, sisters of the bridegroom and Martha Garrett and Michelle Tweedy entertained with a linen and lingerie shower at the home of Mrs. Stratton. The bride-elect was presented with a blue corsage of carnations. In attendance were friends and relatives and mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Nick G. Tsoleas and Mrs. Wallace D. Moore, mother of the bridegroom.

Miss Tsoleas was honored with a ,miscellaneous bridal shower in the fellowship hall at Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church. Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Lewis Edward Moore and Mrs. Maynard Powell, aunts of the bride-elect and Mrs. John R. Harris and Mrs. Neville P. Moore, aunts of the bridegroom. The bridal motif was carried out in the rainbow colored table decorations and the fellowship hall was decorated with palms. The bride-elect was presented with a white corsage. Among the many friends and relatives attending were Mrs. Nick G. Tsoleas, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. Wallace D. Moore, mother of the bridegoom, Mrs. Royal W. Wells, grandmother of the bride-elect and Mrs. H. H. Moore, Sr., grandmother of the bridegroom.

Although no invitations are being issued, friends and relatives are invited to attend the wedding.
